THE WINES

2 bottles

2019 Arterberry Maresh

Dundee Hills Pinot Noir $58

High tones of strawberry, currant, pomegranate, soy sauce and white pepper. Likes a few minutes in the glass to get silky and integrate. Bright, crisp and pure. Red fruits that lean more toward savory than to sweet fruit. Fine tannins, very classic Dundee Hills structure. NEW RELEASE.

2017 Arterberry Maresh

Old Vines Pinot Noir $44

Glistening scarlet. A highly complex bouquet evokes red berry and cherry preserves, along with building Asian spice, rose oil and smoky mineral flourishes. Shows fine delineation and seamless texture, offering concentrated, spice-tinged Chambord, cherry, cola and spice cake flavors that pick up a strong rose pastille nuance with air. Finishes extremely long and pure, with fine-grained tannins providing framework and gentle grip to lingering red fruit, five-spice powder and savory herb notes. 70% of this fruit comes from the estate Maresh vineyard and the other 30% is from the neighboring Weber vineyard; the vast majority of the vines were planted in the late 1970s.

96 – Josh Reynolds, Vinous Media.

2018 Arterberry Maresh

Old Vines Pinot Noir $44

Pale ruby-purple, the 2018 Pinot Noir Old Vines has an alluring perfume of blueberries, violets and dark cherries with accents of earth and amaro. The medium-bodied palate offers intense, broody fruits framed by muscular tannins and bright freshness, and it finishes long and full of flavor. It's still youthfully coiled and may improve with another year or two in bottle."

94+ Erin Brooks, The Wine Advocate.

2018 Arterberry Maresh

Maresh Vineyard Pinot Noir $65

The 2018 Pinot Noir Maresh Vineyard is an incredible wine. It opens slowly to an arresting perfume of dusty earth, dried rose petals, tea leaves, licorice and amaro with a wealth of bright red berry fruit at the core. The palate is elegant, supple and juicy, with an expansive fan of layered, spicy flavors and a very long finish. It's hard to resist now, but it will have more to offer with time in bottle.

95+ – Erin Brooks, Wine Advocate

2019 Arterberry Maresh

Maresh Vineyard Pinot Noir $69

Maraschino cherry, black tea, raspberry, potpourri. Stimulates every part of the mouth with the perfect amount of fruit to climb the hill of structure and send the flavors coasting down the finish. So well balanced and in harmony, there is nothing that sticks out to describe. All the parts of this wine are working together to create a single piece of Maresh red fruit nectar. Checks all the boxes and lacks nothing – even the muscle that some 19's don't have. Gets mystical like the 08 and 16. – Jim NEW RELEASE
